'People are not punished for their sins; but by them'
Elbert G. Hubbard.

8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel by John Byrne O.S.A.

1. Can you remember an occasion when you were giving out about the behaviour of another person, and later realised you had some of the same faults yourself? Was that a wake-up call for you? Jesus tells us it is more constructive to correct our own faults, than complain about the faults of others.

2. If we want to help other people, we need to have our feet on the ground, with a realistic awareness of our gifts and our limitations. Otherwise we will be impractical, like the blind leading the blind. What has helped you to be realistic about what you can and cannot do?

3. 'No good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit.' This parable invites us to examine the motivation behind what we do. If our basic motivation is love, then our lives will bear good fruit. If love is absent from our lives, then the fruits will be conflict, disharmony and abuse of people for our own selfish ends.
